

Selections of Scholarly Writings by Students, Faculty, Alumni and Affiliates

1. Bruce A. Ackerman, The Rise of World Constitutionalism (1997).
2. Paula Ahumada et al., Democracia, Austeridad Y Derecho (2021).
3. Richard Albert et al., Constitutional Amendments: Making, Breaking, and Changing Constitutions (2019).
4. Akhil Reed Amar, The Law of the Land: A Grand Tour of our Constitutional Republic (2015).
5. J. M. Balkin, The Cycles of Constitutional Time (2020).
6. Aharon Barak, Proportionality: Constitutional Rights and their Limitations (2012).
7. Christoph Bezemek, Constitutionalism 2030 (2022).
8. Bardo Fassbender, the United Nations Charter as the Constitution of the International Community (2009).
9. James Fowkes, Building the Constitution: The Practice of Constitutional Interpretation in Post-Apartheid South Africa (2016).
10. Markus W. Gehring, Europe's Second Constitution: Crisis, Courts and Community (2020).
11. Dieter Grimm et al., Constitutionalism: Past, Present, and Future (2016).
12. Robert Post et al., Constitucionalismo Democrático: Por Una Reconciliación Entre Constitución Y Pueblo (2013).
13. Susan Rose-Ackerman et al., Due Process of Lawmaking: The United States, South Africa, Germany, and the European Union (2015).
14. Wojciech Sadurski, Constitutionalism and the Enlargement of Europe (2012).
15. Alec Stone Sweet et al., Proportionality Balancing and Constitutional Governance: A Comparative and Global Approach (2019).
16. Kevin Tan et al., Constitutional Law in Malaysia and Singapore (2010).